Dear Brother Chalk,

If you recall, we contacted you in the fall of 1961, concerning the possibility of your working with us here at Irvington, but your situation at that time would not permit your making a change. We are once again in need of a dedicated Gospel preacher since Brother John Smith, formerly of Royal Oak, Michigan, has decided to attend Abilene Christian College and complete his education.

The Irvington Church has much to offer the right man. A seventeen acre tract of ground has been purchased and our building plans are nearing completion for a new church building. Long range plans call for an orphanage or home for the aged on the same site. Our membership, at the present, 214, with our annual contribution about $27,250.00.

If you are still not interested in making a change, perhaps you might know of someone who is. We would so much appreciate your referring them to us. If you would like to visit with us, may we hear from you soon so that the necessary arrangements can be made.

Please address any correspondence to my home at:
1126 N. Bancroft Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

May the Lord bless you in every good work.

Yours in Christ,

Marvin H. Wiseman
